We are convinced that even if these bodies we live in are folded up at death like tents, we will still have a God-built home that no human hands have built, which will last forever in the heavenly realm.

Receive Glorified Body

[1] I beseech you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing to God, which is your reasonable service.

[2] And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, in order to prove by you what is that good and pleasing and perfect will of God.

[3] For I say, through the grace given to me, to every one who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think. But set your mind to be right-minded, even as God has dealt to every man the measure of faith.

[2] We inwardly sigh as we live in these physical "tents," longing to put on a new body for our life in heaven, [3] in the belief that once we put on our new "clothing" we won't find ourselves "naked." [4] So, while living in this "tent," we groan under its burden, not because we want to die but because we want these new bodies. We crave for all that is mortal to be swallowed up by eternal life.

5 And this is no empty hope, for God himself is the one who has prepared us for this wonderful destiny. And to confirm this promise, he has given us the Holy Spirit, like an engagement ring, as a guarantee. 6 That's why we're always full of courage. Even while we're at home in the body, we're homesick to be with the Master — 7 for we live by faith, not by what we see with our eyes.

23 But each one in his proper order: Christ, the firstfruits, then those who belong to Christ in his presence.

37 And what you sow is not the body that will come into being, but the bare seed. And it's hard to tell whether it's wheat or some other seed.
38 But when it dies, God gives it a new form, a body to fulfill his purpose, and he sees to it that each seed gets a new body of its own and becomes the plant he designed it to be. 39 All flesh is not identical. Animals have one flesh and human beings another. Birds have their distinct flesh and fish another.

40 In the same way there are earthly bodies and heavenly bodies. There is a splendor of the celestial body and a different one for the earthly. 41 There is the radiance of the sun and differing radiance for the moon and for the stars. Even the stars differ in their shining. 42 And that's how it will be with the resurrection of the dead. 43 The body is "sown" in decay, but will be raised in immortality. It is "sown" in humiliation, but will be raised in glorification.
