"the sin of the deceiver." The deceiver could be referring to the devil, or to our own ability to be self-deceived.

For be you not ignorant of his devices.

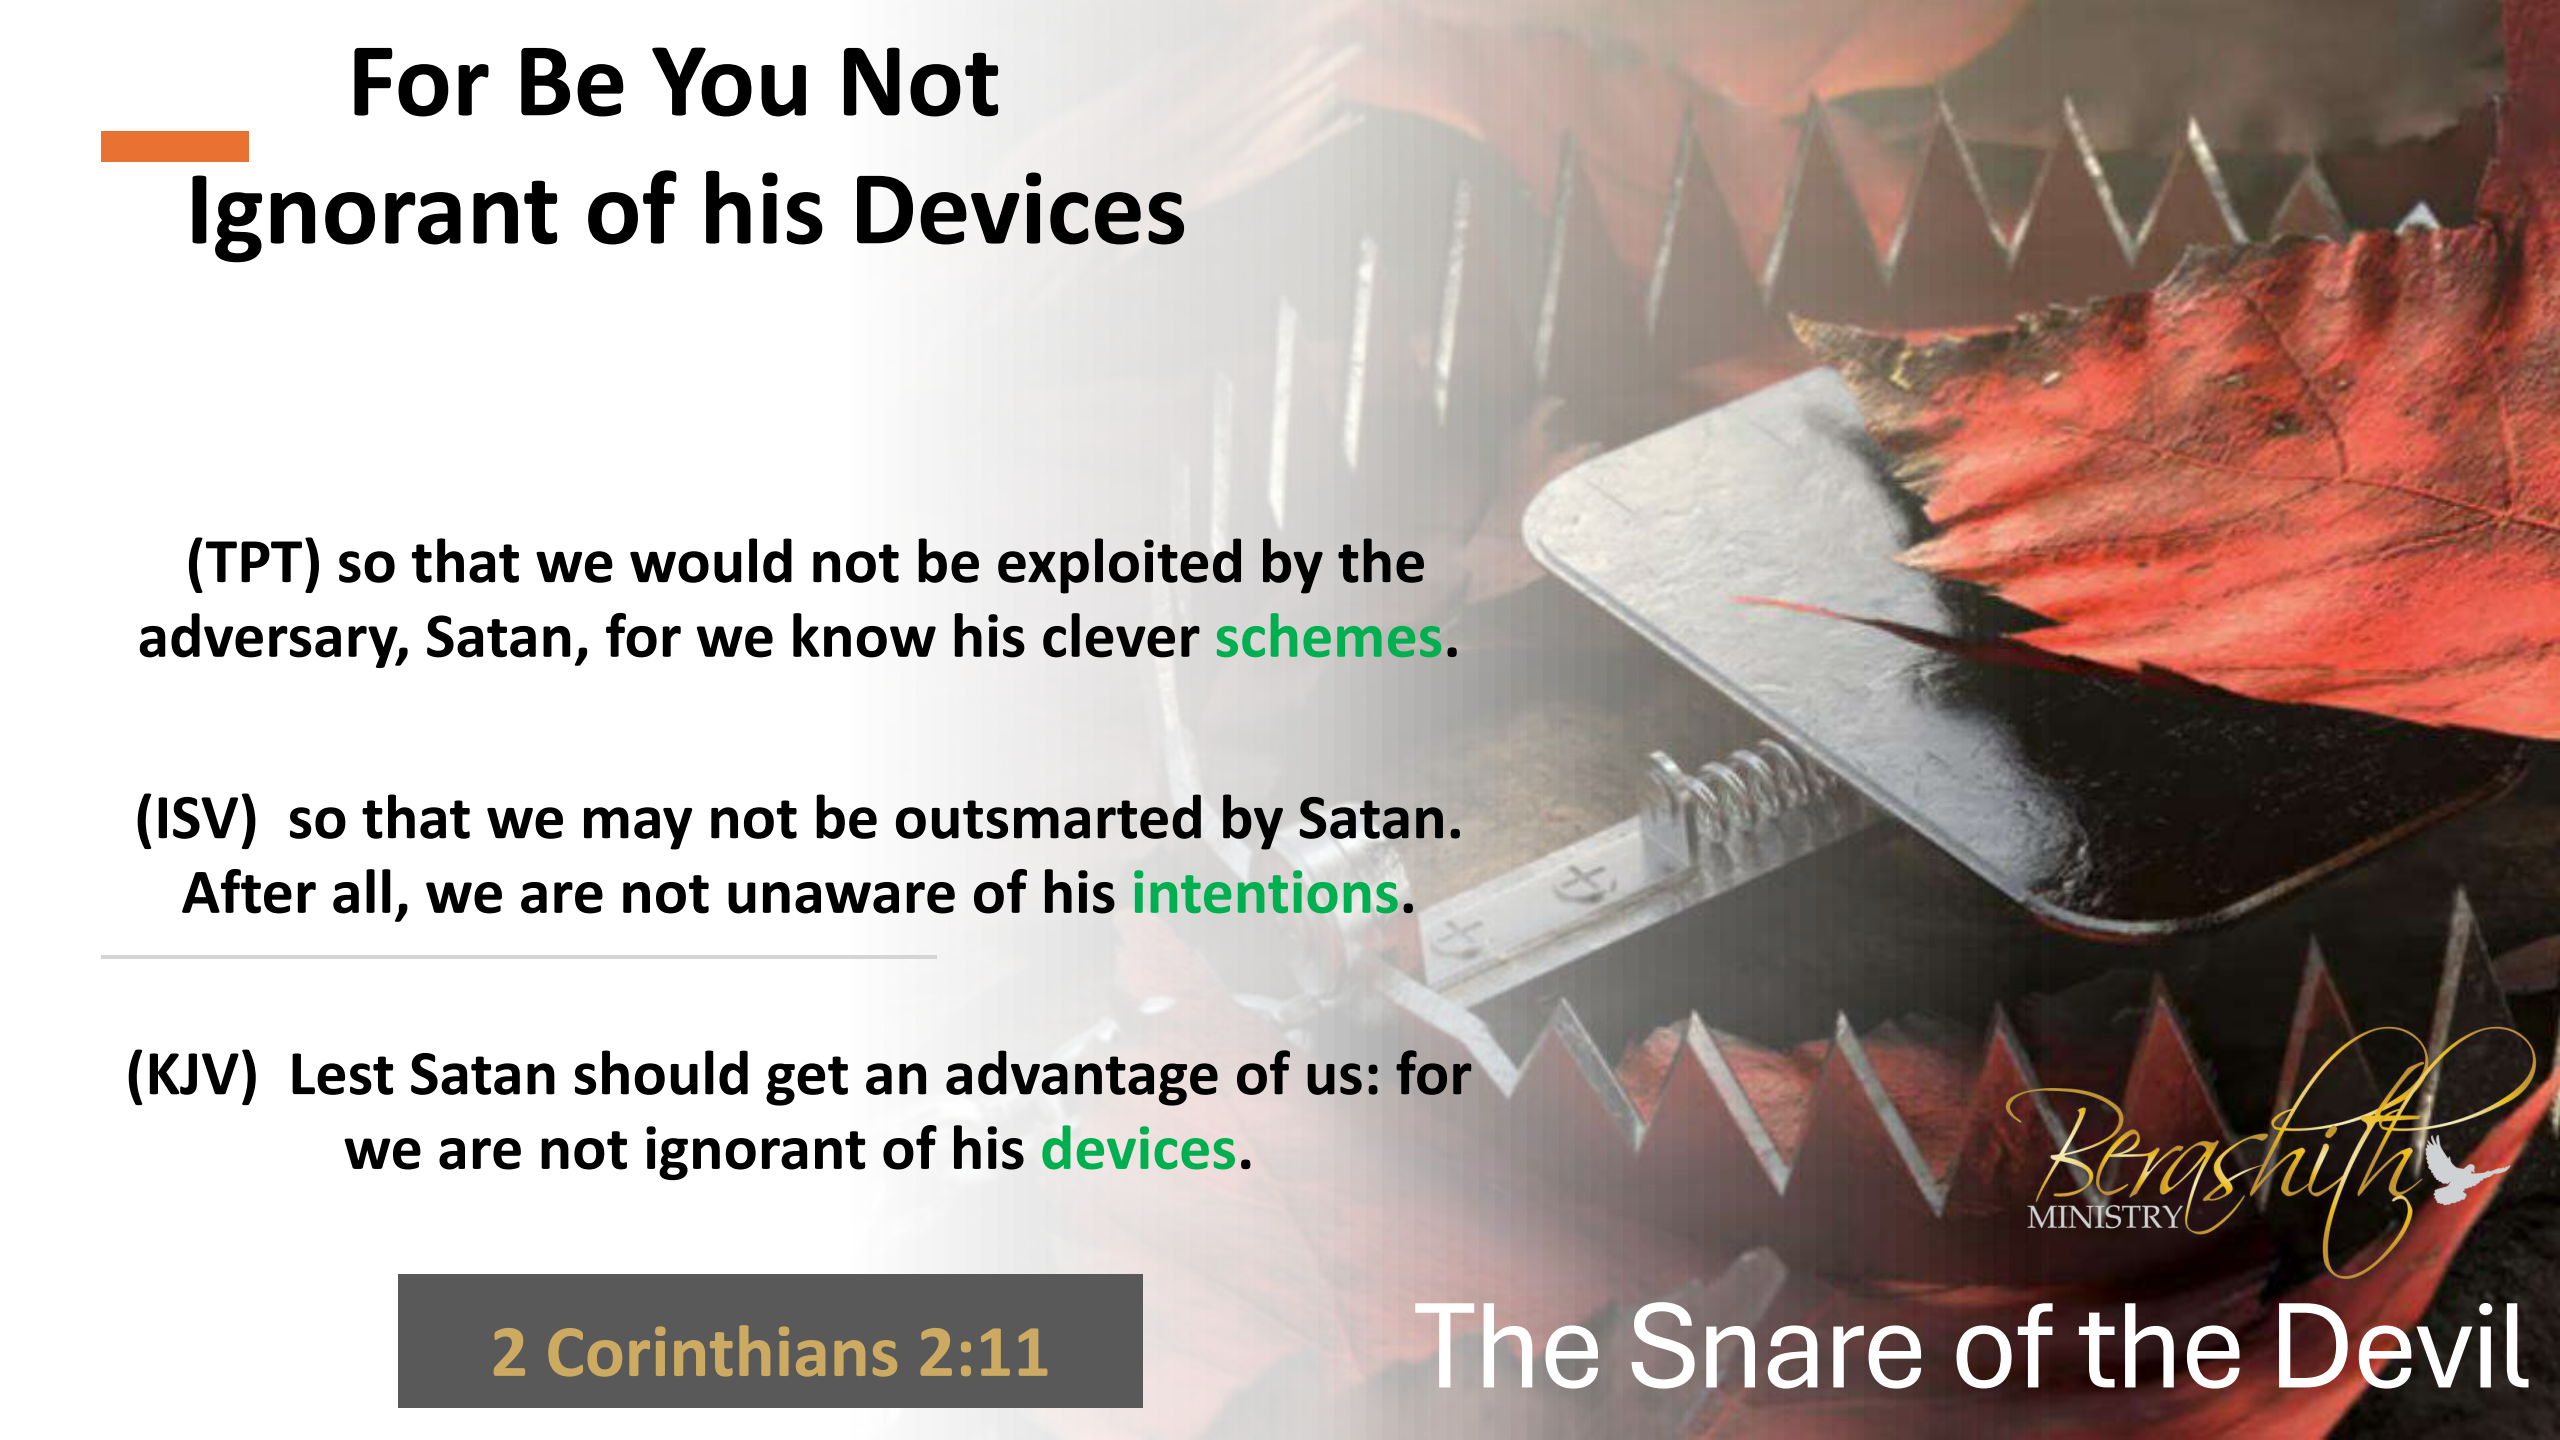

For Be You Not Ignorant of his Devices

(TPT) so that we would not be exploited by the adversary, Satan, for we know his clever schemes.

(ISV) so that we may not be outsmarted by Satan. After all, we are not unaware of his intentions.

(KJV) Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

Ephesians 6:11

(TPT) Put on God's complete set of armor provided for us, so that you will be protected as you fight against the evil strategies of the accuser!

(TLV) Put on the full armor of God, so that you are able to stand against the schemes of the devil.

(JUB) Put on the whole armour of God that ye may be able to stand firm against the wiles of the devil.

Escape the Snare of the Devil!

[23] Stay away from all the foolish arguments of the immature, for these disputes will only generate more conflict. [24] For a true servant of our Lord Jesus will not be argumentative but gentle toward all and skilled in helping others see the truth, having great patience toward the immature.

2 Timothy 2:23-24 TPT

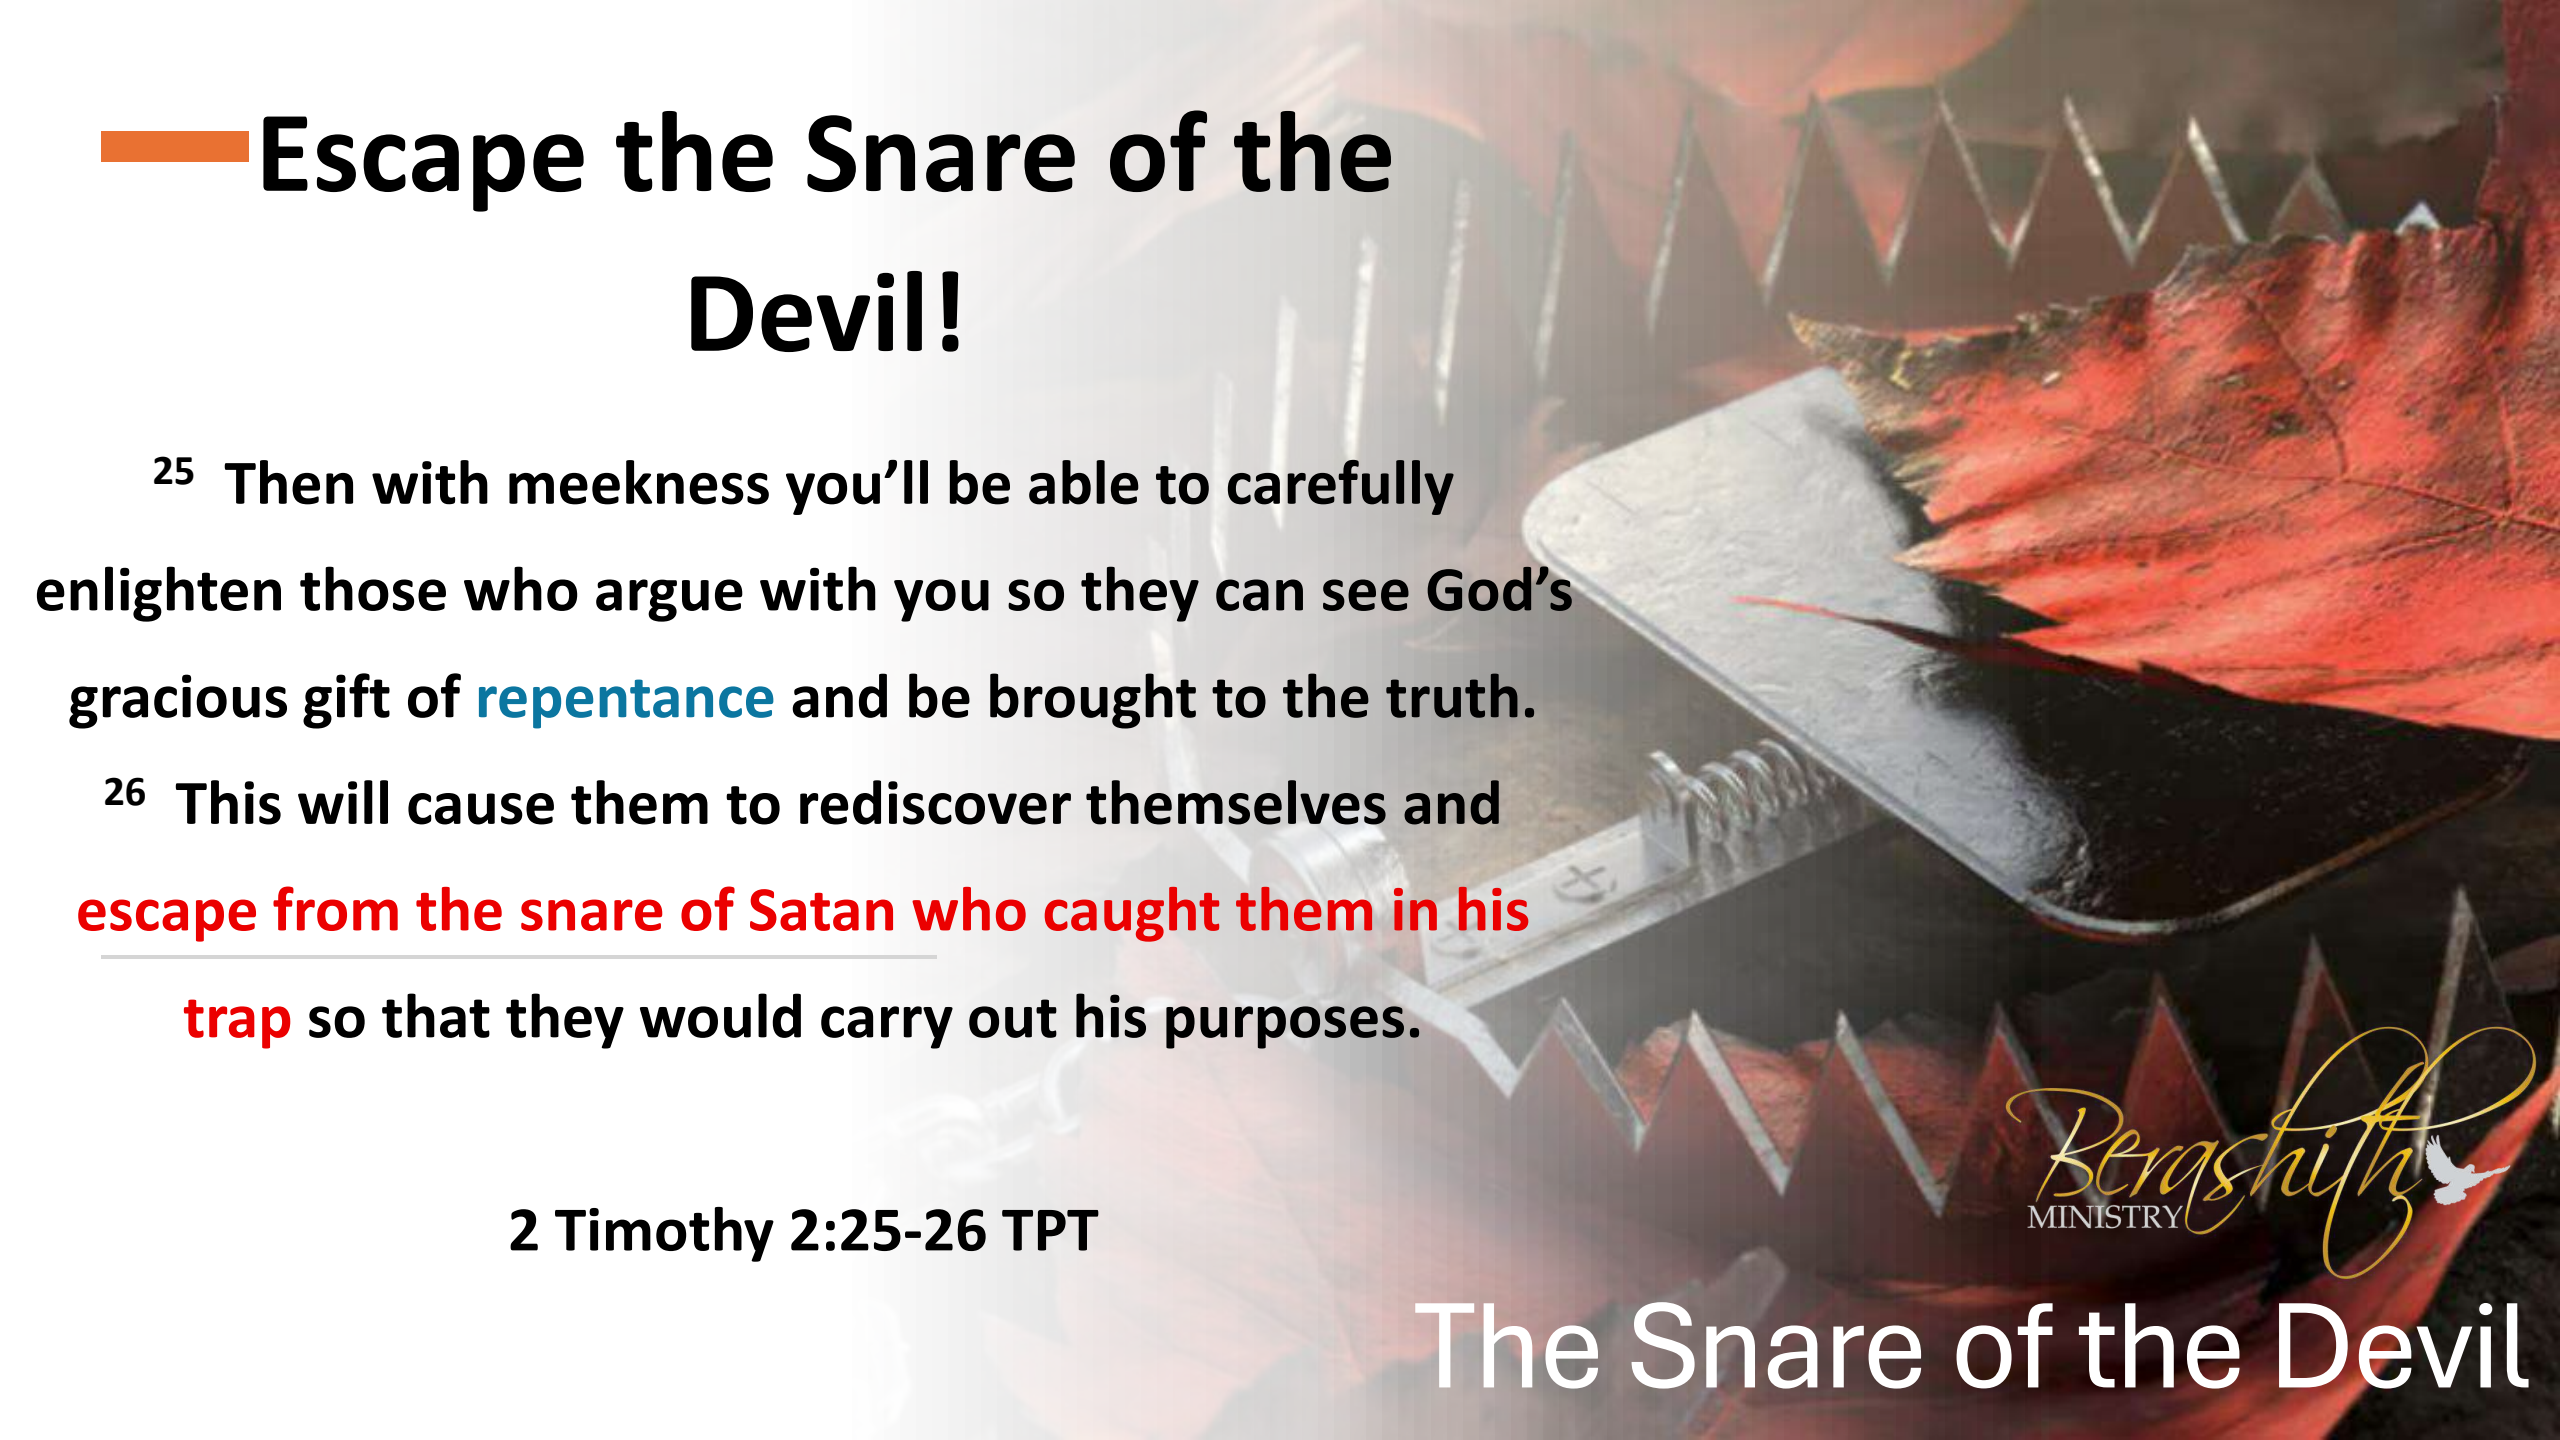

Escape the Snare of the Devil!

25 Then with meekness you'll be able to carefully enlighten those who argue with you so they can see God's gracious gift of repentance and be brought to the truth.

26 This will cause them to rediscover themselves and escape from the snare of Satan who caught them in his trap so that they would carry out his purposes.

Many Voice

(KJB) There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

(ESV) There are doubtless many different languages in the world, and none is without meaning,
1 Corinthians 14:10

(KJB) Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

(TPT) But I am like a foreigner if I don't understand the language, and the speaker will be like a foreigner to me.
